FLAMES FROM THE UNCONSCIOUS: TRAUMA, MADNESS AND FAITH

Karnac Books, 2009. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: 'Michael Eigen's Flames from the Unconscious aligns us with his consciousness and opens up our experience of the world. We are led into the heart of a deeply caring individual: a restless, demanding, probing, sensitive, tender and inspiring therapist who knows our fears but is no longer afraid himself.'- Mark Epstein, MD, author of Thoughts without a Thinker and Going to Pieces Without Falling Apart An astonishing and gripping psychoanalytic meditation on the collective psyche and the experiences of the recent traumatic past. As always, Michael Eigen has an extraordinary ability to use language in a way that opens and deepens psychic reality. His form evokes what his theory proposes, the constant ebbing and flowing, opening and closing of our ability to stay in contact with that reality. He is a master of psychoanalytic theory who nonetheless brings us up constantly short in the face of what is shockingly raw and untheorizable in life.'- Jessica Benjamin, author of The Bonds of Love, Like Subjects, Love Objects and Shadow of the Other Eigen finds in psychoanalysis - especially in the work of Winnicott - the language of commitment to his patients and to his own unique rewording of psychoanalysis. Time after time as paragraphs open with powerful assertions one is conscripted into Eigen's quotidian psychoanalytic and spiritual depth. Who else can find in the ordinary "grace" of lived experience so many challenging reflections? No one else thinks like this, writes like this, or puts psychoanalysis into a separate realm. Like the writings of Adam Phillips, this is literature for the ages.'- Christopher Bollas, author of Shadow of the Object, Forces of Destiny, and The Freudian Moment This beautifully written book emphasizes the dilemma of how we deal...
