Finders Keepers: The Story of a Man Who Found $1 Million

By Bowden, Mark

Book Condition: New. Ships From Canada. New in new dust jacket. Glued binding. Paper over boards. 208 p. Audience: General/trade. From Booklist How many of us fantasize about looking down one day and finding there at our feet a bag full of money? That really occurred 20 years ago to a young man named Joey Coyle, a deadbeat longshoreman in South Philadelphia. A couple of bags of money--$1.2 million in unmarked hundreds--fell off an armored security truck, and Joey just happened along and discovered it. The seven days of Joey's incredible adventure--until he got caught, that is--are recounted by the author of, among other best-sellers, Black Hawk Down (1999). This book initially ran as a three-part serial in the Philadelphia Inquirer Sunday Magazine in 1986. Bowden's easy journalistic style lets the story basically tell itself, as the portrait emerges of a man who just did not have the resources to pull off a successful scam. Joey was acquitted of any crime because the jury found him temporarily insane as th.
