Like four different ways to disarm an enemy before the attacker can take a breath. Like every detail of every book hes ever read. And Luke knows enough just enough about what his father does as a black ops infiltrator to know which questions not to ask. Like why does his family move around so much Luke just hopes that this time his family is settled for a while. Hell finally be able to have a normal life. Hell be able to ask the girl he likes to take a ride with him on his motorcycle. Hell hang out with his friends. Hell be invisible just as he wants. But when his dad goes missing, Luke realizes that life will always be different for him. Suddenly he must avoid the kidnappers looking to use him as leverage against his father, while at the same time evading the attention of the schools mysterious elite clique of Russian hipsters, who seem much too interested in Lukes own personal secret. Faced with multiple challenges and his emerging paranormal identity, Luke...
